Materials used to train Title IX Coordinators, Investigators, decision-makers, and any person who facilitates an informal resolution process[1,2]

Year	Training Material(s)
2026	• Student Discipline Litigation: Due Process, DASA, Title IX & Strategic Advocacy • Title IX & Clery Act Annual Training
2025	• Title IX & Clery Act Annual Training
2024	• College Discipline and Title IX Defense
2023	• Title IX & Clery Act Annual Training
2022	• SUNY Student Conduct Institute / Posted Training
2021	• Violence Against Women Act Annual Training
2020	• The Future of Title IX Under the Department of Education's New Regulations • Addressing Online Harassment in an Educational Setting
2019	• A Data-Driven Approach to Sexual Violence Prevention Training (Title IX Compliance)
2018	• Maximizing Compliance with Federal Regulations Governing Sexual Assault on College Campuses • Litigating Title IX Claims: History, Trends, and Predictions • College Discipline and Title IX Defense
2017	• Title IX & Clery Act Annual Training • Violence Against Women Act Annual Training
2016	• Understanding Victim Safety Planning and Campus Safety Risk Assessment: The Intersections of the Clery Act and Title IX and Response to Sexual Violence • Title IX, Due Process, and Campus Sexual Misconduct
2015	• Sexual Abuse on College Campuses – A Legal Crisis?

[1] All individuals involved in the Title IX process are required to read and understand the College's Title IX policies, as outlined in the Academic Catalog. Training on such policies are the first step in the College's Title IX training process.

[2] Individuals involved in the Title IX process, including all students have access to a training video on Sexual Violence and Awareness, accessible through the College's library website.